L. N. BASS,

MR. S. S. RANSOM,
Coach Meharry Team.
Mr. Ransom is one of the best coaches that has ever been South and can always be relied upon to turn out a football team.

MY GIRL AT THE GAME.
A Willow and Fisk's colors go hand in hand.
A hobble on, and yet yells for Meharry.

There are some great writers, thinkers, fumbler and monkeys, but wasn't that a good game?

Say! that was a great fight.
South Nashville is so very selfish.

If the young girls will not take the lead, let them get out of the way; there are a number of widows who are crying for a chance.

ZUBER,
Meharry Quarterback.
All-Southern quarter for 1910, the field general of them all. He is a very dangerous man at all times, he can buck the line, run ends, place and drop kick, throw the ball and, in fact, do anything in the football line well.

FISK 11 MEHARRY 8

A GREAT BATTLE

In one of the greatest games ever played between the teams Meharry and Fisk was battled to-day for the verdict. The weather was ideal for the players. The field was a bit treacherous and yet the game was one of the fastest battles waged by these ancient rivals. Each team brought out the best they had in the shop and long before time was called for play one could see that it was going to be a battle royal.

The Fisk supporters were jubilant over the splendid showing of their team and were loud in their praise of the work done by them this season. They figured that with an equal break in the luck the old Gold and Blue would be returned a sure winner. On dope Fisk had the call and the wonderful playing of the team goes to show that they have lived up to the dope at least in part. Meharry, on the other hand, came down to the dell from her South Nashville home filled with that old spirit of conquest. She was thinking only of the game and what a victory must mean. Each man was filled with that Spartan spirit of do or die, and playing a desperate game from the first call she is sending thrill after thrill through the heart of friend and foe.

H. D. CANNADY,
Manager of Meharry Athletic Association and Left Tackle on the Team.

Strange as it may seem, yet it is true that all Fisk teams have been noted for their ability at end runs. The team to-day demonstrated beyond a doubt that they have few equals and no superior at that style of play. Kendal, in breaking away for his long and spectacular end runs, would bring the stands to their feet. There is no denying the fact that Fisk is playing one of the greatest games ever seen here.

harry team is palyng the famous Minnesota shift and for a few moments swept everything before them. Fisk did not seem able to stop them. But after a few words from Capt. Kindle things began to look different, and the Fisk line is now holding like true and tried veterans.

To say that the game was a good one is putting it too mild. It should be called a corker—one of the greatest seen here this season; one in which one sees all kinds of new and old football. The game was replete with sensational stunts, long runs, forward passes, line plunging and good kicking. In fact, to have missed this game you would have lost something you could never have regained.

The playing of big chief Cochran was also a splendid demonstration of the modern game, and the manner in which he worked must bring comment from all.

Bass also played a wonderful game at center, as well as did Brown, Canady and Zuber. In all the game must be considered one of the best ever seen at Athletic Park.

KINDLE,
Fisk's Captain and Right Halfback.
Is a Tennessee boy and hails from Mt. Pleasant. He is without doubt the fastest man on the team. He is a past master at sidestepping, runs hard and low and slips away from a would-be tackler like an eel. He will bear watching at all times. He is noted for his long runs around the ends and is liable to get away at any moment. He did splendid work to-day.

L. E. WELKER,
Coach, Fisk.
Dr. L. E. Welker, Coach, Fisk, comes from Harvard, where he made good as a player. He has had years of experience as a coach and shows it by the team he has developed at Fisk this season.

LEWIS, Fisk Quarterback.
The best punter that has ever been seen in action in these parts. He kicks a long spiral that is difficult to handle. He also runs his team well, is himself a very fast man. He holds several medals for his work on the track and is an all round athlete.
